

Undecided?

You're not alone...

This is your no-nonsense guide to the 2007 election.

Where do the parties stand?

Finding it hard to cut through the spin to find out what the parties are actually going to do about the issues? You're not alone! So here's your easy guide to the key questions facing the country.

Will they..	LIB/NAT	LABOR	GREENS	DEMOCRATS
Ratify the Kyoto Protocol?	×	✓	✓	✓
Set strong short term targets (within 5 years) to cut greenhouse pollution?	×	×	✓	✓
Repeal WorkChoices?	×	✓	✓	✓
Cover dental under Medicare or a similar national scheme?	×	✓	✓	✓
Significantly increase funding for primary and secondary public education?	×	✓	✓	✓
Provide broadband to rural Australia?	✓	✓	✓	✓
Commit to closing the indigenous life expectancy gap?	×	✓	✓	✓
Withdraw our combat troops from Iraq next year?	×	✓	✓	✓

Party positions accurate as of 15/11/07. This flyer is meant as a summary of parties' platforms. More nuanced information can be found on their websites.

GetUp!
Action for Australia

www.GetUp.org.au

A people's movement, not a political party

GetUp.org.au is an independent, grassroots community advocacy organisation. GetUp does not back any particular party, but aims to build an accountable and progressive Parliament – a Parliament with economic fairness, social justice and the environment at its core. GetUp is not-for-profit and receives no money from any political party or the government. This campaign, like all our campaigns, has been funded entirely by voluntary donations.

Authorised by Brett Solomon, GetUp! Level 2, 294 Pitt Street, Sydney, NSW 2000
Provided online via www.getup.org.au by GetUp!